Rhyd Ddu Hut Meet

Tan Yr Wyddfa, adjacent to Welsh Highland Railway Station car park, Rhyd Ddu, Snowdonia

Walking: In addition to many low level paths, Snowdon via the Rhyd Ddu Path, & the Nantle Ridge are all doable from the front door. The 9.00 bus takes you to Pen y Pass (cheaper than parking) - walk back over Crib Goch. Scramble? Sentries Ridge is very handy!

Climbing: The Llanberis Pass, the Ogwen Valley, Tremadoc, Clogwyn Ddu'r Arddu ... climbing areas that are known the world over - and all are easily accessible from here. (20 mins to Tremadoc)

MTB: Recognised as "best track in the UK" the downhill track at Antur Stiniog in Blaeneau Ffestiniog is around a 30 minute drive from the hut and so is the Gwydir Forests Marin Trail (25k; 2.5hrs).

Cycling: Road cyclists will enjoy a good number of routes around Snowdonia with some challenging mountain passes; and on roads that are generally a good less congested than other areas such as the Peak District and Lake District.

BEDS: 16 Mixed - in 3 rooms.

COST: £22 for the weekend. Bring your own beer or wine (or tea) and don't forget your other food for Fri/Sat on the hill, and of course - your sleeping bag!

STUFF you need to know: We've been going here for over 30 years, and it's well equipped with cookers, loos, good heating and drying facilities and is an excellent place to relax after a day on the hill/crag. As usual, we will get a ladies room sorted.

APRES WALK: A fine selection of home baked cakes and tea/coffee before....

SAT NIGHT: The HMC Catering Corps will be in action - excellent tucker.

BEST PUB : The Cwellyn Arms - not cheap, but The Tanronnen in Beddgelert is also good, but be early for food. We will be in the Cwellyn on Friday evening.
