Presidents Meet

Snowdon Lodge, Tremadoc, N Wales

Our annual club dinner, with speeches, awards, and tat awards. A great evening and opportunity for the club to come together and celebrate our activities.

Walking: Cnicht (from Creosor) offers almost a 360 degree panorama, and you could add on the Moelwyns too. The Rhinogs are but a short hop away, as is Moel Hebog and the pass of Aberglaslyn. If it's wet, some coastal walking from Criccieth might suit you - the views are stunning.

But with Snowdon and the Nantle Ridge also close at hand, you'll have some of the finest walking in Britain - we really are spoilt for choice!

Climbing: More often than not Tremadoc can be the place to be, whilst it's raining, cloudy and windy on the hill the weather here can be sunny, sheltered and warm. This is a place that can offer reliable year round cragging. The closest wall is the Beacon Climbing Centre at Waunfawr.

Cycling: Tremadoc to Shell island (36ml) lots of hills !!! Fantastic views across to Criccieth and mountains for the road bike, however, if it's MTB trails your after Coed y Brenin is about half an hour away and home to the all-weather single track including the 'Falseteeth' which incorporates the biggest feature in the forest, 'The Cavity'. Drop in and get spat out over the exit with as much style as you can muster!

BEDS: 36 in ten bedrooms of 2's ;4;5 & 6 - bedlinen supplied, not towels though.
COST: £45 for the weekend, payable in advance. Includes 3 course dinner on Sat night., and nibbles in the kitchen Friday. Bring your own beer or wine (free tea) and don't forget your other food for Fri/Sat. (Some real ales will also be on offer!)
STUFF you need to know: Warm comfortable accommodation and birthplace of Lawrence of Arabia, it's a grade 2 listed building, is a well equipped centre with cookers, showers, loos, central heating and two lounges. Good drying facilities, own car-park and is an excellent place to relax and enjoy the best of the Snowdonia.
BEST PUB : The Union Inn, a 5 min walk, offers real ales and meals. We'll be in here Friday evening to start the weekend off.
