Sheen Hut Meet, Buxton

Peak Stones, Sheen, Buxton SK17 0ES

Walking: From the door a splendid 10ml circular heads out to Longnor; Pilsbury Castle and Hartington and includes the rivers Manifold & Dove. Can be extended accordingly, or head south towards Alstonefield and Bunster Hill, returning up Beresford & Wolfscote Dale - either way - some classic walking to be had. Climbing: Head for the wall, it's cold! MTB the Manifold Trail and the Tissington Trail both off road routes that follow old railway lines. The Manifold trail travels down the gentle Manifold Valley on eight miles of tarmac track. The Tissington Trail is a gravel trail from Ashbourne through Tissington to connect with the High Peak Trail at Parsley Hay, providing access to 40 miles of off road cycling through the stunning Derbyshire countryside. Cycling 60 mile route taking all on back roads and using as many peak district trails as possible (better now the monsal trail tunnels reopened). From Ashbourne, then back roads to Waterhouses, Manifold Trail to Hulme End, then through Hartington to Parsley Hay, back lane to Bakewell, Monsal Trail to the Penine Bridleway, return to the Tissington Trail and back to Ashbourne.

BEDS: 14 in a converted stone barn 1×6 and 1×8 with 2 shower rooms, 3 toilets fully equipped kitchen large comfortable lounge. outside area with decking, tables and chairs Full central heating.

STUFF you need to know: Take your sleeping bags and food for the weekend. Possibility of The HMC Catering Corp in action on Sat evening, otherwise it'll be s/c or down to the local.

BEST PUB : The nearest pub is 200yds away - The Staffordshire Knott - we've not been here but. serves good food and real ales, in a 17c inn with log fires in winter.
