Walking: In addition to many low level paths including the Sygun Cop-permines and Aberglaslyn Pass circuit, Snowdon via the Watkin Path, Yr Aran & Cnicht are all doable from the front door. The 9.30 bus takes you to Pen y Pass (cheaper than parking) - walk back over Crib Goch?

Climbing: The Llanberis Pass, the Ogwen Valley, Tremadoc, Clogwyn Ddu'r Arddu ... climbing areas that are known the world over - and all are easily accessible from here.

MTB: Recognised as "best track in the UK" the downhill track at Antur Stiniog in Blaeneau Ffestiniog is around a 30 minute drive from the hut.

Cycling: Road cyclists will enjoy a good number of routes around Snowdonia with some challenging mountain passes; and on roads that are generally a good less congested than other areas such as the Peak District and Lake District.

BEDS: 14 Mixed - However we usually reserve the back room for the ladies.

Additional nights are possible as is camping right outside the door.

COST: £10 a night, payable on the weekend, plus around £4 for either a BBQ (weather permitting) or a two course dinner. Bring your own beer or wine (or tea) and don't forget your other food for Fri/Sat and your sleeping bag.

STUFF you need to know: There is no running water, or showers, but it's well equipped with cookers, loos, good heating and drying facilities and is an excellent place to relax after a day on the hill/crag. Showers are available at the NT campsite (7 min walk) or you can "ming" with the rest of us!

BEST PUB : Tanronnen Inn, Beddgelert. Must be there by 6pm latest for seats/food but it's likely that we'll stay at the hut in this rather special place.
